"The time is out of point" with the democratic party this fall.

The democratic parties of Ohio are still doing all they can to work up a big republican majority.

The greenbackers and the democrats are sort of congenial spirits. They join forces whenever possible.

There is a good deal of truth in the statement that the remarkably harmonious feeling in the republican party and its fine prospects of success, are largely due "to the judicious course of President Arthur.

Great telegraphic achievements are still the order of the day. The new line from the United States to Brazil has been finished, and the emperor at once sent a through message to President Arthur tendering his congratulations on the opening of the new line.

To show how thoroughly are some young women chained to dress, it is only necessary to state that Miss Ella Bill, a killed berself with a shotgun because her stepmother made her wear a dress which had been rumpled in a shower.

It will be a wonder if the Washington monument is finished this generation Work was suspended two months ago, but will be resumed next week. It is expected that by the end of the working season this year the shaft will have reached a height of 410 feet. It is the ungainliest pile of stone and mortar on the continent.

Chicago nover does anything by halves, not even in acquitting criminals. But the reception given to Lord Chief Justice Coleridge, of England, shows what that city can do when it tries. Marvelous as is its enterprise in commerce, trade, and building, it is still more marvelous in its manner of entertaining. The reception Lord Coloridge received there will not be surpassed on this continent.

Mr. Robinson, the republican candidate for governor of Massachusetts, is mentioned in the Boston Journal as a man who, "reaching home on Saturday night after a long session of congress, will be found at the Sunday school in the morning. And if you hear a good bass voice in the choir," adds the Journal, 'you'll be sure to know that Robinson is there." Will Puritan Massachusetts defoat such a man and elect Ben Butler?

Mr. Francis Murphy, the temperance lecturer, who began life in jail as a yagabond, a drunkard, and a wife-beater, has ust returned from Europe, and was given a reception on Tuesday evening at south, he will need no legislation to help Cooper Union, New York. Judge Noah. Davis, of the superior court, delivered the address of welcome, and Rev. Dr Newman, General Clinton B. Fisk, and other prominent persons made addresses Mr. Murphy's triumph over the appointe for drink, and the success he has wou in this country as a temperance orator, is one of the surprising things of the time

BEN BUTLER AND HIS POLITICS.

The greenbacker of Massachusetts have nominated Ben Butler for governor and the democrats have swallowed him. The democrats nominated him last year because thep couldn't help themselves. He forced himself upon the convention, and by a well organized acheme succeeded in making himself the candidate of all the opposition to the republicans, and by one of the queecest, of the many queer turns in our politics, he was elected. But governor Butler will not be re-elected this fall, at least the chances are decidedly against him. The republicans are united and have one of the strongest candidates that the party could give, and if unde the present condition of thing old Bay State will persis in electing Butler, its politics would seem to be hopelessly bad.

The political life of Ben Butler shows to what reckless extremes a man will go in politics, and how thoroughly upprincipled he can become when in search for office. Butler has been in sympathy with every political organization in this country "during the past twentyyears. Ho was a

Jeff Davis democrat in 1860. He became a republican during the war, and after the war was elected four times to congress by that party. When he got defested for the Forty-fourth congress, he became a sort of a greenbacker, then a labor reformer, then a Denis Kearney man with a deep tinge and at last of communism, he became what he is to-day, a democratic-greenbacker. He doesn't care for principle in politics. To him it is not

The question is, will Massachusetts reelect this man governor? The presumption is that it will not do it, but you can't always predict correctly, and a state that and that for Ben Butler, can not be depended upon.

THE NEGRO IN POLITICS.

When Mr. Frederick Douglass made his masterly speech before the Louisville colored convention, he made use of the following language: "We shall never cease to be a despised and excluded class so long as we are shut out from political preferment. With the elevation of our class to the vice-presidency, or to a position in the cabinet, our equality would be established."

The country will regret exceedingly that such utterances were made before the Louisville convention, and especially that they were made by Frederick Douglass. This part of his speech shows that he has changed very much during the past dozen years. Doubtless many of our readers will remember his eloquent lecture on self-made men, which he delivered in all the principal cities of this country. In that lecture he took the position that all the negro needed in order to put himself fairly in race of life, was to be let alone, and he would work out his own political and social salvation Since that time Mr. Douglass has frehandsome girl of Seymour, Connecticut, quently said that he did not believe in any special legislation for the negro, and thought he should be satisfied with a free ballot and honest and sure pay for his services as a laborer.

But Mr. Douglass seems to have forsaken this position, and now joins the mass of colored people who clamor for legislation to help the condition of the negro race in this country. The government has done much for the smelloration of the colored man. Fourteen of them were members of congress at the same time-all going from slavery to the national house of representatives, andone found his way to the senate. Mr. Duglass was himself appointed marshal of the District of Columbia-a very important and lucrative office- and afterwards register for the district, another valuable office; and Mr. B. K. Bruce; another colored man, is register of the treasury of the United States. What more does Mr. Douglass or his race rightfully demand?

It must be borne in mind that the negro race is in a peculiar condition. Seventy per cent of them in the south cannot read or write, and comparatively very few of them can do both. Generally speaking they pay no taxes in the south, and as a rule they are not inclined to take the advantages the government already offers them of educating their children. What the negro ought to have n the south, is perfect freedom to voto as be pleases—to become the perfect mester of his own ballot-and then to receive fair pay for his work. When the negro is placed on an equal footing in these respects with the whites in the him alone.

A NEW ERA IN EDUCATION. The commercial club of Chicago, an organization made up of wealth and fiberal-minded men, have taken a step which will mark a new era in the history of industrial training in this country, especially in the west. Last Monday, the club laid the corner-stone of a building which shall be called the Chicago Manual Training school, and when President Blatchford of the board of trustees, made the address, he stated the object of the school

As the result of an evening's discussion of education, about two years ago, it was resolved that the club would contribute from its own membership $100,000 for the establishment of a manual training-school, to teach mathematics, drawing, high school English branches, carpentry, wood-turning, pattern-making, iron-chipping, forge-work, brazing, soldering and the use of machine-shop tools. The course will be three years in length, and the pupils will be boys over 14 years old, of good moral character. who stand a good examination in the lowest branches of learning. The tuition fees will be very low.

This system will combine mental, physical, and industrial training, a thing almost unknown in this country, although in France, England, and Germany they have been in existence for some time and receive important financial aid from the government. There are some who have urged an industrial training department connected with our common schools, and only a few days ago, the Rev. Heber Newton, of Philadelphia, appeared before the senate sub-committee on labor and education, and charged that the common schools of the country were doing an injury to the community by unfitting the coming men and women for the tasks oflife, or in other words, Mr. Newton meant that the schools were only developing the brain power of children, where as they should develop all the faculties mental, moral, and physical, so that when a boy leaves the common school he will be fairly well accomplished in some trade by which he can support himself.

It may be all right to preach this sor; will turn from $0,000 republican majority of education, but the theory cannot be to 13,000 democratic greenback majority, carried out in our common schools. BUTLER'S MEN.

Democracy of the Old Bay State Gather Together,

And Renominate Benjamin F. Butler for Governor.

Synopsis of the Platform and Pro ceedings --- Address of the Colored Men at Louisville --- Political Notes.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Sent. 27.-The Demoeratic convention was a rather noisy and a very inharmonious body. The party ma chine won its first victory in the opening moments when the leaders of the revolt against the state committee tried unsuccessfully to gain control of the convention organization Col. French, the temporary president, would not recognize the various malcontents who claimed to have the floor, and saw only Col. Plympton, of Worces ter, who moved that the officers of the state committee be the temporary organization of the convention. An overwhelming majority sustained Mr. Plympton's motion and the firm attitude of Col. French. The ebullition of feeling soon subsided, and there were many hisses on the part of the handful of disgruntled delegates. They even interrupted the chaplain, echoing his words and shout-ing "Louder" to the reverend gentle-man. Later another attempt was made to have the choice of the state committee left to the delegates, but this too, was quietly ruled out of order and ex-Police Commissioner Gorgan, of Boston, and several other emonstrants were squelched incontinently. Mr. Gorgan then intimated that he might call attention to some rulings of the chairman which were not in accordance with parliamentary rules or Domocratic precedent, but proceeded to say that he represented the sentiment of a Boston ward and proposed to be heard. "For the sake of victory we do not want dissensions, and with victory sturing us in the face it will be well to let the voice of this convention be heard. I want all the elements represented." He then moved that a committee of one from each county be selected to nominate members of the state committee. Mr. Coffey, of Boston. rose to most cordially second the motion. He followed the line of Mr. Gordan's talk, and refuted the suggestion that he was in any way opposed to the governor. "Some have said this is Butler's convention. We are here in the interest of Gov. Butler, but we should be and are a deliberating body." Mr. Thayer, of Worcester, who had moved that the chairman appoint the committees in theusual way, defended his mot or as rollowing wiser precedent. David Power, followed, and asked if of this city, followed, and asked if the intelligent delegates proposed to replace good managers with sorcheads and cranks. Mr. Gorgan spoke again, and thought if this election depends on a state committee and not on the people we deserve to lose it. Representative Mollen, of Worcester, tried to talk, but Col. French shut him off, put Mr. Gorgan's motion, and it was Then Mr. Mellen mounted the stage approached the chairman rather threateningly, and was hostled back on the platform by several Stalwart delegates. Coffey and half a dozon others tried to talk, but Col. French put Mr. Thayer's motion, the convention adopted it, and the programme of the committee was fully carried out. The address of Hon. Edward Avery, the chairman, was cheered only at the passage wherein he complimented the governor. and the same was the case with the other addresses. The nomination of Butler was, of course, unanimous, his speech of acceptance croated wild enthusiasm. The governor reviewed his administration, bringing out in bold relief the acts of reform which he has performed. and taunting the Republicans with having no other issue than "Butler must go." "To rest in peace and quiet after a hard year's work would," he said, "be so delightful that the thought makes him almost unwilling to enter upon the work of another year." If the people of the commonwealth would show him a man who will honestly and with energy carry on the work of referming the state institutions, diminishing taxes, standing up for the poor who have no other friend, being always true to himself, to God and the commonweath, he would step down and yield him room with more pleasure

"Now," he continued, "let us go home and go to work. Would to God that this cup might pass from me, but I must have no personal feelings in this matter. I challenge them," he continued, "to point to any act of mine that any just man need blush to mention." The governor's speech closed with the remark that he rested his reputation with the plain people of Massachusetts. In this passage he seemed to prophesy: "Next year we will attend to matters outside, and if we are faithful over a few things the bible tells us that we shall be placed over many If we do our duty, we can show that this country is what our fathers made it-the model commonwealth of the world. We will make her what she was when Webster said There stands Massachusetts: look at her! If anybody should say that to-day, I fear somobody would reply: 'And there stands Tewksbury; look at her!' William Marsh, the nominee for secretary of state, is a bank cashier in Springfield. Mr. Ingalls, the nomineofor treasurer holds a similar position in Adams. Mr. Cummings is a young man and a state senator, and Mr. Hopkins is a member of the present legislature. The governor's agents presented each delegate as he entered the convention a pamphlet containing cuts of the imaginary results of the barbarities of Towksbury The platform congrutulates the party upon signs of coming triumph everywhere; reaf-firms the declaration of principles of the last national convention, and also of the last state convention; asserts the supremacy of the nation and the integrity of the state; favors equal rights without regard to sex, a free ballot, economic expenditures, reform of civil service, tariff for revenue; opposes sumptuary laws; favors arbitration in labor strikes, and pretoction of employes by legal enactment; endorses the Tewksbury investigation, and says it disclosed the incompetent supervision exercised over that institution, want of proper system in accounting for public money appropriated for its support, and indifference to human sufferings; commends Butler to the people of the state as the only volunteer soldier ever elected governor of Massachusetts, and urges his reelection and finally commends the Republican party went the same way. That committee reported the following address, which was adopted, efter which speech making was the order of the day:

The national convention of colored men respectfully present the following as embracing and representing their views and sentilends:

1. That we are grateful for and rejoice in

I. That we are grateful for and rejoice in the miraculous emancipation that came to our race twenty years ago. The shock of epidathel arms was the lullary of the nation horn in a day. We don't, we can't, forget the great sacrifice of the woman and the herole men who made possible the struggle in which treason and slavery were consigned to a common sepatcher. If we did we would be immindful of the measure of devotion and patriotism that the 180 white and seven colored soldiers tendered the nation.

patrotism that the 186 white and seven colored soldiers tendered the nation.

2. We are not insensible to the fact that the congress of the United States has spread upon the statute books many laws calculated to make us secure in our rights as citizens, nor would we be forgetful of the magnificent amendments to the constitution intended to render forever impossible the crime of human shapers. slavery.

4. We do not ask any more class legisla-

render forever impossible the crime of human slavery:

4. We do not ask any more class legislation. We had enough of this; but we do believe that many of the laws intended to secure us our rights as American citizens are nothing more than dead letters. In the sorthern states almost without exception, the colored people are denied justice in the courts, denied the fruit of their honest labor, defrauded of their political rights at the bullot-box, shat out from learning trades, cheated out of their civil rights by inskeepers and common carrier companies, and left by states to an inadequate opportunity for education and general improvement.

4. We regard labor on the question of education and moral training as paramount to all other questions. We believe that the question, especially in the south, needs recusting, and that plantation credits and the mortgate system should be abolished. Honest labor should be remunerated. The land-holders of the south should recognize that this question is to be solved by encouraging the negroes to industry frugality, and business habits, by inciting them to habits of thrift, by assisting them to acquire an interest in the soil, by paying them honest wages for bonest work, and by making them contented and happy in the land of their nativity. The white men and owners of the soil of the sonth can settle the question of labor and capital between white and black. We believe in a broad and comprehensive system, looking toward the education of young colored girls so that they may become intelligent and faithful women, and that young colored boys may learn trades and become useful rue and good citizons. The religious and moral training of the youth of our race should not to neglected. The bope of every people is adherence to sound social and otheral principles. The moral doment in the charactor is of greater value than wealth or education, and this must be fostered by the family and accouraged by the nubility. of greater value than wealth or educatio and this must be fostered by the family and encouraged by the pulpit.

OTHER POLITICAL POINTS. LINGOLN, Neb., Sept. 27.—The Republican state convention elected Church Howe, of Nemaha Co., chairman, over Col. Chase, of Omaha, and nominated M. B. Ruse, of Wahoo, for the supreme court, and J. M. Hintt, of The Alma Tribune, Harlan Co., for regent, long term. The convention was still in session at midnight.

Boston, Sept. 27.—The Republican ratification meeting at Tremont Temple was attended by 3,000 people. Hon, George D. Robinson spoke. The meeting was very enthusiastic. The campaign was opened at Lowell by E. P. Brown, counsel for the superintendent of Tewksbury almshouse. NEWARK, N. Burralo, N. Y., Sept. 27.-"Gath" says:
I had a long talk with Mr. McEwen who nominated Cloveland for governor. He says his presidential prospects are better than his prospects ever were for governor. He thinks there is nothing in the Tilden movement. The old Tweed canal ring spoils element is slightly against Cleveland. The city is full of his pictures. It is in one-third of the windows on Main street. He is the mild idol of General Grant talks politics quite freely with his friends. In conversation a few weeks ago with a former member of congress he indicated very plainly that he did not think that Arthur should be nominated. As between Arthur and Logan you can safely put Grant down for Logan.

I was talking the other day with a very intimate personal and party friend of Blaine He is a man who has been very near to Blaine politically and in financial and business enterprises. He said: "If Arthur should be nominated I think that beyond a doubt he would be defeated. But I don't think he will be nominated." While the Blaine newspapers insist that he is not and will not be a candidate for the presidential nomination, it is a noteworthy fact the nearly all the managers who worked for him in 1876 and 1880 are not working for any ody else at present.

Coleridge on America.

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—Over 350 representative Chicago men sat down to the banquet in ionor of Rt. Hon. John Dukes, Lord Coleridge, chief justice of England. In respose to the toast, "The Queen and the President," Lord Coloridge concluded: No Englishman can look upon the destiny of the great republic—no Englishman that is worthy the name of Englishman—without a feeling of great admiration and ardent hope. There is no touch of jealousy, believe me, there is no shade of hypocrisy in the con-gratulation of my country to yours. I, who have known Mr. Gladstone at least since 1847 (applause), and have never had, and never will have, any political leader but that great man whom I know so well and asteem so righly, and have supported with such hearty satisfaction in and out of office—it is not difficult for me at least, with him, to say from the bottom of my heart that I give the heartiest, the sincerest, the most cordial wishes for the future welfere of my kin beyond the seas. (Long-continued applause.) Another banquet was given to Lord Cole-ridge by Hon. Emory A. Storrs, at which a large number of distinguished guests were present, including Hon. Jno. A. Legan and Hon. Thos. A. Hendricks. The above named gentlemen each made a speech full of good will and welcome to the guest of the evening and Lord Coleridge replied in his happiest

The Chicago Tribuno Editor Disoneses the Labor Question Before the Senate Com-

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Joseph Medill, of Chicago, testified before Senator Blair's com-Caicago, testified before Sanator Biair's com-mittee upon the relations existing between capital and labor and kindred social topics. "Tbelieve," he said, "that the chief cause of the impecuations condition of the wage classes of this country is their own lack of thrift. Too many people are trying to get along without year. Those who do toil squander the light part of their wages in drink and tobacco. On small wages a man can still save something. The wisest olitical thinker on social questions that the United States has yet produced once said that 'a pouny saved is a penny carned.' It was to working classes Dr. Franklin was speaking, and I must say I have never known a volumen, no matter what his carnings were who, if he spent his money for smoke and drink, ever saved anything. Those who have closely examined the subject say that workingmen spend at least $400,000,000 per annum for liquor, and nearly $200,000,000 for eigers and tobacco. The money thus thrown away during the last ten years would have been sufficient to provide a comfortable home for every family in this country. Placed at interest, this amount would to-day have reached the high figure of $5,000,000,000. Drink, I affirm, is the progenitor of nearly all the ills to which poor men in the United States are subjected. trades unions or other combinations can ever bring relief to them in the absence of temperance and economy. High license—the higher the better-will reduce the number of groggeries and the inclination on the part of the people to visit them. I have very little faith

The evil next to drink which destroys the lives of wage workers is the existence of wretched tenement houses. It is a significant fact that in the great city of New York the number of deaths exceed the number of hirths by 10,000 annually. Premature deaths among the laboring classes of this and other cities are due partly to the criminal negcities are due partly to the criminal neg-lect of public officials and party to the greedy avarice of grasping landlords. Rents here are too high. Healthy dwellings at low rents, high license, and personal temperance would benefit wage-paid people. It is a standard belief among the trades unions that a reduction in the hours of labor would eventually prove a remedy for all ills to which the laboring classes are now subjected. They seem to overlook the fact that were this plan adopted the country would soon be flooded with a horde of foreign artisans, and wages would, as a result, fall so low that it would become almost impossible to make a living. Education might be made to remove some of the difficulties, but not with our present system. High schools and colleges do not teach the pupil how to double the value of his labor. They bring up hundreds and thousands of our vouths to get their living by their wits. Every institution should teach studies—such studies as will be of use to the student in his after life."

in political prohibitions or schemes of that

Concerning railroad charges, Mr. Medill said the constant fluctuation of freight tariffs occasioned great losses to merchants. At present nothing could be determined in regard to the future shipments of crops. The railroad had it in their power to destroy thousands of dollars by raising or depressing freight charges. He thought this power should not be given to the railroads, but should be confined oxclusively to the gov-

What is your opinion of the work in which this committee is engaged?" asked Senator Pugh.

"That's a delicate question," said Mr.
Medill. "However, I will say that I believe you will be able to recommend to congress the adoption of such measures as will remove some of the difficulties which now exist, or you will be able to declare to the people of this country that such matters are outside the inrisdiction of legislation."

HOADLY'S AMBITION.

Marat Halatead on the Onio Campaigu.

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—Murat Halstead, of The Cincianati Commercial Gazette, being The Cincianati Commercial Graette, being asked why Judge Hoadly wanted the position of governor of Ohio, roplied:

"He doesn't want it. He is one of Samuel J. Tilden's most intimate friends and he will be the next presidential candidate of the the Democratic party, if the head of the 'old ticket can arrange matters as he wishes.

Tilden is reputed to have a 'bar'l,' and he will probably use it in Judge Headly's behalf. The assertion that the Democrats in Ohio need funds is absurd. They have plenty of money, and will use it. There is no reason on earth why Judge Hoadly should wish to be governor of Ohio except as a steppingbe governor of Onto except the state to the presidency. Ho is, moreover, Triden's candidate for that office. You need not worry about the 'eld ticket,' Tilden will the tright of the state never allow his name to be used with flendricks again. He knows too much for that.

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—Miss Alma Lochrone, the 15-year-old daughter of ex-Chief Justice O. A. The young Lochiavar is Willis Matterday on of Dr. Westmoreland Westmoreland, son of Dr. Westmoreland, the state penitentiary physician of Georgia.
The only opposition to the match was on the ground of age, the bride being still in school. They were married at Dalton, about 100 miles from Atlanta. Much alarm was occasioned by the unaccountable disappearance of the girl, but when the truth became known the couple were sent for and welcomed home to receive the blessing of Mr. Lochrane.

New Jersey Girl the Victim of a Bogus Marriage .-- Her Father's Threat.

New York, Sept. 27.—A dramatic scene was enacted in a Jersey court-room at the An assignment was made by Abra- trial for maintenance for herself and infant of Hattie Wagner against John Rowan. It appears that about a year ago a marriage ceremony was performed in this city, which the young woman supposed was genuine, but which has since been declared a fraud, The certificate of marriage was forgod by a person who personated the Rev. Ed-mund Guilford. The couply lived together for several months, when Rowan deserted the young woman. At the trial the aged father of the wronged girl was the principal. namer of the wronged girl was the principal, was roughly handled by the attorney's witness, and for the defense. Upon leaving the stand he looked Rowan full in the face, and, raising his hand, said: "If the law does not give that poor girl justice, I will take justice in my own hands and kill you." Howar shrank away from the old man's weath, and the court called him to order. Turning to the judge. Wagner hindogized, saying: "I have controlled my amper under this wrong until I can bear no more. Mr. Henry Barnes, the tea and coffee merthant, 30 Houston street, New Haven, Connectient, writes on May 10th, 1880: "It is with feeling of gratitude, and a desire to benefit my felow-man that I write you these few lines as testimony to the value of the greatest of all medicines. Eight years have I been a sufferer from kidney disorder and inflammation of the bladder. Sometimes when passing water the pains were [something terrible, a scalding, burning sensation, with retention of urine, with sharp pains in my side. Joins, and back, extending clear to the back of my head, tended to make life miserable. Thave been treated by a num ber of our best physicians, and have used any number of proprietary medicines, all to no avail, obtaining no relief. How long I would have continued in this way I do not know; in fact I despaired of getting relief, until a neighbor, who had been very much benefited by the use of Hunt's Remedy, advised me to try it: and, although I had no faith that it would reach my case, yet as he spoke so highly of its great merits I decided to give it a trial, and its use has been attended with the very best possible results. Twelve hours after taking the first dose I experienced relief. I continued on inst down experience refer. I continued on in its use untill had used five bottles when all me pains had vanished, my otherwise good health returned, and I am free from all pains, and a na well man. A Special Study for Years

Dr. F. B. BREWER, Has made Chronic Diseases of the?

Throat, Lungs, Heart, Stomach, Liver, Kidnays, Nerves and Blood.
A special treatment for years. He is not a boastful, ignorant pretender, but an educated physician, seeking to do good, by devoting his talent and coordies to the treatment of a class of n aladies that have been with him a long and patient study. To be able to treat successfully brunic diseases it requires that a physician should be a sound, thorough scholar in the art of science and medicine generally. He should give his entire time to their study, be thorough in his investigations and have a long and varita experience. Dr. brewer claims to work no wonders or to do any more than any well educated physician can do, who devotes his whole time to the study and treatment of chronic discases exclusively and has had bis many years of experience. For years Dr. Brewer has visited the the places he now visits, and has obtained his reputation by being honest in his dealings candid in opinions and reasonable in his charges. Those who are afflicted are invited to call, investigate and decids for themselves. It will cost nothing to do so. Address all letters

MEDICAL DISPENSARY-Dr. Fishblatt has taken a long lease on the residence of Mrs. Peter Myers, on East Milwaukee street, for his family, and will open a large dispensary in the city of Janesville next month, October, and make his future home here, and as soon as he can find a suitable place he will build. Due notice of his opening his office will appear in his column advertisement.

To THE PUBLIC-The undersigned has leased for a term of yours, a part of the block formerly used by Hogoboom & Atwood on West Milwankee street, and has opened a lumber yard where I will have better facilities for handling lumber than ever before. A side track of the Northwestern road now runs into the yard, which will save to persons purchasing lumber of me the expense of hauling with teams to the central part of the city. Persons wishing to purchase lumber are respectfully requested to call and examine my stock and prices at the new yard, before making purchases elsewhere. After the stock at the old yard on River street has been closed out, my business will al be transferred to the new place of business an West Milwaukce street. Office at the new yard is with Charles Atwood & Co.

-We hear it whispered that there was a little "scrap" on South Mun street yesterday afternoon, in which one of the scrapers used a monkey wrough.

-Henry Miller, charged with an assault on Thomas Pratt, is being tried by a jury in the minicipal court to-day, C. E. Pierce appearing for the state, and A. C. Bates for the defendant.

-Entries for premiums offered at the county fair can be made at the Pember house in this city on Saturday, where the books will remain until Tuesday morning, when all additional entries will be made at the secretary's office at the fair ground.

-Nicholas Kramer was before the municipal court this morning and plead guilty to the charge of selling liquor without a license. He was fined twentyfive dollars and costs, amounting in all to twenty-seven dollars and seventy cents, which was paid.

-Capt. W. T. Vankirk, secretary of the Rock county fair association, yesterday received a dispatch from Governor Rusks stating that he would be here on Friday to attend the county fair. The Governor will be escorted to the fair grounds by the Janesville Guards, Bower City Rifles. and W. H. Sargent Post No. 20, G. A. R.

-Miss Lucy M. Ashley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Ashley, residing on Race street, first ward, died at half past four o'clock yesterday afternoon, after struggling for several months with consumption. The deceased was twenty years of age. The funeral will take place at the home of the deceased on Saturday afternoon.

-Mr. Nathan Friedman, who was before the municipal court charged with stealing sixty dollars from Mrs. C. E. Cummings, was discharged this morning, without the defendent being sworn, the evidence being insufficient to hold him. J. W. Sale for the state, and Messrs. Hyzer & Clark for the defendent.

-Mr. E. B. Heimstreet wants a bright and industrious boy between 15 or 17 years old, to learn the drug business. To a boy of this kind Mr. Heimstreet offers an excellent situation. One who has the business of a druggist, this is a firstclass opportunity, as Mr. Heimstreet is one of the best pharmacists in the state

-Mr. R. W. King is arranging to make a first class exhibit of his stationery at the county fair next week, and it is hoped all our merchants will fall into line and make exhibits. They all have the goods to make such an exhibition worthy of the city, and a credit to themselves, and should help along the fair by following the plan of Mr. King.

-Owing to ill health, Mr. O. H. Anderson has been compelled to sell his bar- three stores, two of which will have a ber shop to Mr. C. A. -If our friend "over the creek" will take the trouble to look over his exchanges along the route of the Barnum show this season, he will flud that Miss Stickney has performed the very neat act of throwing her horse on many occasions during this sesson, and so often has the trick been accomplished that her companious pay no attention to it. It's a fact, Mr. Recorder, no matter how "thin" it appears to your noctural vision.

-While Deputy Sheriff B. F. Gifford, of Orford, and another man, were gathering up cans used by the Davis creamery, upon which Chicago parties held a mortgage, they were obliged to stay over night in the neighborhood. During the night parties entered the barn and shaved the hair from the horses tails, removed the burrs from the wagon wheels, and stole a light skeleton wagon, and some fifteen milk caus. What object the parties had in committing this act is not

-We call attention to the announcement of M. C. Smith & Son, found in ouadvertising columns of this day's issue. The firm has always sustained the reputation of square dealing with the public; and their explanation is in keeping with the principle on which their prosperity is founded. An hour spent in looking through their extensive stock will serve to convince anyone that they mean to perform anything they advertise. Their fresh stock of full and winter clothing is boing received and is extensive and admirably well selected.

-Yosterday, Mr. Jumes Conlon, while engaged about a threshing machine on the old Blanchard farm in the town of Rock, caught his left hand in the cylinder, and it was so badly mangled that amputation was found to be necessary, which was accomplished by Drs. W. H. Falmer and L. J. Barrows, of this city; who found it necessary to amputate the left arm midway between the wrist and elbow. Mr. Conlon was in the employ of Mr. Michael Finley, and with the exception of a sister, we believe has no relatives living.

-The new boiler house at the county insane asylum and poor farm, in Johnstown, is completed, and the smoke stack, which is sirty-two feet in beight, is in place. The bollers have been taken from their old position and placed in the new hoiler house, the connections for heating all the buildings with steam have been made, and everything is now ready. so far as the heating arrangements are concerned, for cold weather. This improvement has been made under the personal supervision of the building committee of the county board of supervisors, consisting of Messra. Burdge, Ratheram and Ward.

Wells, in Albion cemetery. Prayer service at his late residence on Friday, Sept. 28th, at 3 o'clock p. m., provious to leaving for Albion. The friends of the deceased in this city are invited to -A number of friends interested in music had the pleasure this forenoon of hearing Professor C. Morris Campbell Dean of Wesleyan college of music, at Bloomington, Illinois, manipulate the keys of Court street church organ. It was a musical feast for those who had the good fortune to hear him. The capabilities and possibilities of the pipe organ were wouderfully tested by Professor Campbell in the number of fine selections he gave this ferencon. For five years he played the largest organ in Boston, and Professor Clarence C. Eddy, of Chicago. pronounces him one of the most; skilled organists in Illinois.

Frightful Hunaway. A frightful runaway occurred fon Milwankee street a few minutes before three o'clock this afternoon. A team of horses with a load of lumber and shingles, drivon by a young man named Fred Cutts, residing some five miles north of the city, started on a run near Mrs. Peto Myers' residence, on East Milwankce street hill. The team with the load came and will be deeply regretted by their down the street at a fearful speed, one of friends everywhere. the front wheels collapsed, all the spokes being broken close to the hub; the shingles and lumber were strewn along the street from Davis' livery stable to Milwankee street bridge, where a portion of the wagon was left. The team struck the light grocery wagen of Behan Bros., near the postoffice, smashing the thills and doing some other damage, leaving the remainder of the wrecked wagon in front of Trulson & Peterson's shoe store. The frightened horses kept on up West Milwaukee street, until reaching Kimball & Lowell's hardware store where they struck a lamp post, knocking it studious habits and who desires to learn down and throwing the horses, where they were captured. One of the horses was considerably bruised; the wagon was a complete wreck, and the young man who was in charge of the team, and who was dragged quits a distance, was not hurt, but considerably frightened. With so many teams in the streets, it is a won-

A New Business Brock.

Ground was broken this morning for a new business block on South River street, south of and adjoining the Bennett block. This block will consist of all being seventy-five feet deep, and two block will be of brick, with a plain front, the first floors for stores, two of which will be used for manufacturing purposes. We understand that it is the fintention of Captain Pliny Norcross, the owner of this property, to have the block all completed this fall. This will make a large addition to the already extensive building in this city this season, and one which will add much to the business prospects of our live town. It is also the intention of Captain Norcross to build on the lot fronting on Milwaukee street, but he has not decided to do so this fall. The new building, when completed, will be 75x110 feet ground size.

Mrs. H. F. Bliss, of this city, whose husband formerly managed a job printing oilice in Chicago. Recently they went to Dakota, Mr. Fry establishing a weekly paper at Forest City, Potter county. Before the first number of the paper was issued, the hotel at which they were boarding, burned down, which caused a severe loss to Mr. and Mrs. Fry. This was on the night of the 14th junstant, and Mrs. Fry had arrived there, only the previous evening. She lost a valuable trunk in the flames containing her entire winter wardrobe beside a large quantity of jewelry, and a considerable amount of money. Mr Fry lost some valuable papers, two gold watches, a large quantity of clothing, and $450 in money. milwaule of Exposition. Over sixty thousand people visited the Milwankee exposition during the first fifteen days it was open to the public, and great interest has been manifested in the grand exhibit of industrial products and works of art. It is generally conceded that this, the third annual exhibrion by the association greatly excels in all respects either of its predecessors, and the institution now ranks amount the first of its kind in the country. On Wednesday of last week reception and banquet was tendered the editors of Wisconsin. The representation was large, and a most enjoyable time was had. Tousts were responded to by some of the most prominent newspaper men of the state, who expressed themselves as highly pleased with Milwaukee's pride—her exposition. On Taesday, Sept. 25th, occurs "Soldiers' Day," and all military companies and G. A. all military companies and G. A. R. posts of the state have been invited to be present. Other special days are being arranged and will be announced The art galleries continue to be a great centre of attraction, and several new works of great ment have been added within the past week. The museum is daily awakening increased interest, and is acknowledged to be the linest collection ever presented in this part of the country. Great crowds surround the manufactories, in operation at all hours, and it is clearly demonstrated that this is one of the most interesting departments of the whole exhibition. Bach's band continues to delight the people with their choice music, concerts being given every afternoon and evening. The electric lights are glorious, and at night the vast building presents an nousnal spectacle of splendor. Let no one ful to visit Milwankee and the exposition during the next few weeks.
